BRING YOUR FRIENDS.

Expressing our opinion on important political and social issues should be a normal part of our lives as citizens in a democracy. If you would hang out with your friends anyway, you might as well hang out at the capitol with other people of all ages and backgrounds who share a common cause.

BRING A SIGN, A POSTER, A BANNER.

Check out photographs and videos of the Occupy movement demonstrations going on all over the world, and especially in New York City. Be artistic and compose a statement to hold up for everyone to see. Demonstrating can be fun!

Protest and Political Speech is our PATRIOTIC duty!

For generations, Americans have recognized that if you want to make the world a better place, if you want to preserve your rights as an American, you have to go out and make your voice heard.

BRING YOUR PARENTS. INVITE YOUR TEACHERS.

Children, youth, adults, the elderly. . . everyone is harmed when our society slides toward an oligarchy, where a few very wealthy and powerful people control the political and economic systems. We all have a stake in preserving a tradition of broad-based citizen engagement in the public sphere of civic affairs. Come out to see what democracy and freedom look like.
